HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

ADELPHAI COLLEGE

HABS No. MO-1339

Location: Vine and Fourth Streets, Boonville, Cooper County, Missouri

HISTORICAL AND ARCHITECTURAL INFORMATION

The following information was recorded by Alexander Piaget and Charles van Ravenswaay at the time the photograph was taken:

Built ca. 1855. Destroyed 1942. Lithograph illustrating "College Waltz," by J. Maurice Hubbard, "inscribed to the Students of the Adelphai College," of Boonville, Mo. The lithograph was made by Sarony & Co., New York, and copyrighted in 1855.

The two buildings on the left side of the picture are still standing. The one on the right was destroyed many years ago. Contrary to the position shown in the illustration, it stood opposite the Episcopal Church on the southeast corner of Vine and Fourth Streets.

PROJECT INFORMATION

The Piaget-van Ravenswaay Survey consists of a number of photographs, primarily of sites and structures in Missouri, which were taken before 1938 by Alexander Piaget and after that by Paul Piaget, both in conjunction with Charles van Ravenswaay. Photographs of buildings were incorporated into the HABS collection in 1985 by Laura Rupp, HABS historian. A master list is available in the ~~MO-1800~~ records for MO-1800.
